Description of Volunteer Activities:

Club Ambassador: Making sure that the rules of the club are being followed. This could be as simple as making sure the children clean up their lunch area or the fireplace is not overstocked with wood.

Wine and Cheese Host: This involves signing up for a scheduled wine and cheese, picking up the ordered materials, setting up, clean up the event and recruiting assistance if needed.

Club Maintenance: This committee works to keep the building in working order. Some maintenance skills are helpful but not required.

Spring Fling: Helping make the end of the year event happen in an organized and fun way.

Social Activities: All other social events that need help.

Race Administration: Helping in all aspects of making sure a race goes off smoothly and safely.

Newsletter: Submitting articles or pictures for the e-mail newsletter.

Ski Swap: Work the swap by selling, organizing or collecting materials.

Coaching/Race Crew: Some knowledge and ability required.

Membership: Serve on the panel to discuss new members

Gatekeeping: Working races. Training is available along with added benefits, historically day passes.
